

Company information

Kubald...

... that is quality, adherence to delivery dates and market-driven prices in development and production of signware and illuminated advertising. Today Kubald GmbH is a leading supplier of signware and illuminated advertising in more than 30 countries all over the world.

Experts in Signware since 1935

Founded in 1935, Kubald is a leading supplier of signware and illuminated advertising throughout Europe. More than 150 employees develop comprehensive solutions for our company customers – from planning to production, from consulting to complete design, from research and development through fitting to the maintenance of existing installations.

Always at the agreed date and always at the highest quality!

Making Brands Visible

Wherever you go – Kubald's lighting technology is probably already there, because of decades Kubald successfully cooperates with some of Europe's major brands. We think that is remarkable.

Beside the re-design of outlets in serial production due to long term contracts, another asset of Kubald is the short term conversion in single production but large number of units.

Company information

One-Stop-Solution

Kubald offers full service for signware and illuminated advertising – from planning to installation and maintenance, from refurbishing of existing systems to research and development into entirely new technologies.

Kubald is your competent and reliable partner.

Our project-management comprises the construction and production of our products and furthermore all tasks concerning electricity, cleaning, painting, grounding and construction works. Our success can be seen everywhere: many major brands from different lines of business – most mineral oil, automotive, banking, retail and systemhospitality.

Projectmanagement via KCT

KCT, Kubald Communication Tool, gives you during the whole process at every time a clear view about the status of production.

Easy entrance for our customer over the www with password.
